

First, We Give Of Ourselves

Giving in Generosity

Kick Off Weekend!

This Weekend, we begin our journey exploring the question of, “What it means to give of ourselves” as we seek to grow in discipleship and as Christian stewards. You will have the opportunity to contemplate your thoughts about “giving in generosity”. You may explore topics such as God’s abundance and generosity, God as the model of generous giving, sacrifice and generosity, characteristics of your generosity, and more. Our worship time together will be a time of blessing and growth as we continue to explore God’s rich and generous grace and how we live in that grace sharing the gifts of our financial resources in response to God’s love.

Generosity Weekend, November 5 & 6

The weekend of November 5 & 6 is Generosity Weekend at First Lutheran Church. On this weekend, the loose offering and special gifts of “generosity” will be designated for the expansion of the new food pantry facility on Route 6 near the west edge of town. This is a recommendation from the Church Council. The increased building space is projected to be used for storage and a laundry area to clean donations of clothing before they are offered to the clients.

Generosity Weekend is an opportunity to give above and beyond what we regularly share in our offering at First Lutheran Church for another ministry that is sharing the love of Christ, experiencing the joy of generosity and being a blessing to others.
