How to Share Your Faith

Some of you may be natural evangelists (people who share the good news). Whether it's because you're an extrovert or because you're so excited about your faith that you can't keep it to yourself, maybe it's easy for you to share the good news of Jesus Christ with others. But for most of us (myself included), talking to people about Jesus (at least outside of church) can be downright daunting. And it's not that we're not faithful or devoted Christians – it's just that we don't have much practice doing it and so it scares us. Even pastors have to work at it.

So I'm going to share with you the best tips I know about how to begin a conversation about faith with someone you know. Some of these ideas come from The Lutheran Handbook.

1. Identify people in your life who may be in need of hearing the good news of Jesus Christ. It may be someone who has drifted away from church, someone who is new to the area, someone who is dealing with hardship or grief, or someone who has never heard the full story about God's grace.

2. Pay attention. Often in conversations, the chance to talk about your faith will present itself without you even trying! Trust that this opportunity comes from the Holy Spirit and take advantage of it.

3. Invite someone to come to church. If possible, first invite the other person first to come with you to a fellowship event or church activity other than worship.

4. Check your motives. Make sure you are sharing your faith because of your love and concern for the well-being of the other person, and not in order to impress them with your faithfulness.

5. Don't give up if it takes a while – and also don't blame yourself if the person turns down your invitations or doesn't share your enthusiasm. Make sure the other person knows that your relationship won't be compromised if they don't agree with you or share your faith.

Talking about Jesus outside of church may not be the most comfortable activity for us, but it is what Jesus calls and invites us to do: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19) But we are not alone in this task, since we have each other's support. More importantly, we have Jesus' help and presence which supports us always – he reminds us, "I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

This Easter season as we remember and give thanks for those faithful women who were the first witnesses to Jesus' resurrection and the first proclaimers of this good news, may we be inspired by their faith to run and tell others about Jesus.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Matt

Outreach Ministry's Volunteer Recognition

Many members of this congregation give of their time, talents and treasure help people, projects and organizations outside the walls of First Lutheran. We notice and want them to know that their efforts are appreciated. Each month we will recognize a FLC individual or group of individuals that are doing "God's Work" in our community and beyond.

This month we recognize longtime members Dean and Diane Olson. Long after their own children have grown and started families of their own Dean and Diane continue to give of themselves, their time and their talents in a variety of ways that impact today's young people. After retiring from teaching Diane has been active in JA, Community Chest and as an elected member of the Geneseo School Board. Together they have been leaders locally and State wide with The Beef Association, FFA and 4-H. Dean has served as the Supt of the 4-H Bucket Calf Show for over 30 years and past state president of the FFA alumni. We thank Dean and Diane for being such 'good and faithful servants' in and around the First Lutheran Family.

Seminary Update from Catherine Nelson

My second year at the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary (LTSS) has been one to remember! I have been able to take many interesting classes that helped me to grow in both my faith and feeling prepared to go into ministry. My favorite class that I took this year was Theology of Suffering, Healthcare, and Healing. In this class we heard from many guest speakers about their situations of suffering and how they saw God present during those difficult times. We also had lessons on healthcare and thought about those who cannot afford/don’t have access to it. Finally, we ended the semester with where God is in healing. Surprisingly, I also enjoyed taking my second set of language courses-Greek. It has been amazing to read the Bible in the languages that it was originally written in!

I also had the honor of servicing on the Student Government for a second year. Through my role on Student Government this year I was able to meet and begin to build a relationship with the seminary’s new dean. I am looking forward to working with her more next year and seeing how she can challenge all those who call LTSS home to continue growing.

I am excited to share that this summer I will be home! Every seminarian must do a rotation of chaplaincy training in a hospital. I will be completing this portion of my studies this summer at OSF St. Francis hospital in Peoria, IL. I am thankful for the time that I will be able to spend with family this summer and am looking forward to my work in the hospital where I will learn a great deal about myself and pastoral care.

Lutheran World Relief Baby Care Kits

Bringing a baby into the world can be a difficult and scary thing for a mother living in poverty. A “Baby Care Kit” from LWR provides the things a mother needs to care for her baby the way she hopes to — soft blankets to give warmth and comfort, soap to keep germs away. Lack of something to dress her baby in often keeps a mother isolated from her community, but the clothes in a Baby Care Kit welcome both mother and baby out into the world. Baby Care Kits will be our emphasis for the months of May and June.

Here are the items included in each kit:

- 2 lightweight cotton t-shirts
- 2 long- or short-sleeved gowns or sleepers (without feet)
- 2 receiving blankets, medium-weight cotton or flannel (up to 52” square)
- 4 cloth diapers (flat fold preferred)
- 1 jacket, sweater or sweatshirt with a hood, or include a baby cap
- 2 pairs of socks
- 1 hand towel (dark color recommended)
- 2 or 3 bath-size bars (8 to 9 oz.) of “gentle” soap (in original wrapping)
- 2 large safety pins

Clothing between 6 and 24 months (No new born clothing, please) and may be “gently” used and in good condition.” Donations may be left in the basket outside the church office.

FIRST MINISTRIES

Lutheran Summer Camp Brochures

Hey, kids! Thinking about summer camp at Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Center (LOMC) in Oregon, IL? Brochures are available at the Resource Center.

Food Pantry Collection

The Geneseo Food Pantry is collecting salad dressing, chunky style soup, diced tomatoes, raisins, sugar, sandwich bags, foil, cling wrap, toilet cleaner and toilet paper to share with those in our community. Donations may be left in the basket by the church office.

- The food pantry is also in need of sheets, towels, washcloths and fans.

Another way to help!

During the month of May, Geneseo Super Wash, 810 W Main Street, will donate $2 for every set of 5 tokens purchased (for $32). They will also donate 50 cents for every fully paid Auto Wash and Self-Service car wash. Thank you, Geneseo Super Wash!

Another Child Foundation

Our First Lutheran family and friends have been such a blessing in past years to provide items for Another Child Foundation’s Project Respond. “Through these support drives we demonstrate the love that God has put onto our hearts to transform the hearts for those less fortunate. Each year ACF sends a large shipping container of humanitarian aid items to Romania to support the ongoing work. Typical items are sent each year are: new shoes, winter boots, socks, school supplies, blankets/quilts, winter coats, back-packs and clothing.” A list of items being collected during the months of May, June and July by First Lutheran and community is available at the kiosk.
