Sharing Christ's Love

WORSHIP WITH US THIS WEEKEND!

Saturday 5:30 p.m.

Sundays at 8:30 & 10:00 a.m.

*Festival of All Saints and Commitment Weekend
November 3 & 4, 2018*

Join us for worship on the weekend of November 3 & 4 as we celebrate the Festival of All Saints and receive 2019 commitments. At each of our three weekend worship services, we celebrate the Festival of All Saints by rejoicing in the promise of eternal life for God's beloved children, remembering those who have died, and offering to God all our tears and sorrows as we grieve. You will be invited to light a candle in memory of those whom you love who have died. A bell will be rung as we read the names of the saints from our congregation who have died in the past year:

Kevin DeJaeger, Trevor Schefsky, Ferne Lindell, Royce Stenzel, Jane Fehlman, Lorrin Buechler, Marilyn Benzon, Glen R. Anderson, James Turner and Lorece Arnett

This weekend will also be Commitment Weekend, as we receive 2019 commitment cards from the faithful saints of First Lutheran. Bring your commitment cards with you to worship, and we will have a time designated during our offering for you to turn them in. The pastors are asking each member of First Lutheran to prayerfully consider how you can grow in your giving in 2019. You are invited to consider sharing a tithe (10% of one's income). For some, this is a response that will involve growing into over time. If this is the case, as you work toward a tithe, consider growing your present giving by 10%.

Community Thanksgiving Service

The Geneseo Ministerial Association invites you to join us for worship at our annual Community Thanksgiving Service

Sunday, November 18, 2018 at 4:30 p.m.

First United Methodist Church

Pie Fellowship will follow worship.

If you are able to donate a pie, please sign up at the Welcome Center.

Answered Prayers

We prayed, and God answered.

We have been praying hard – as a staff, as a Council, as a congregation – for the Holy Spirit to guide us through the process of planning for worship time changes and the introduction of a new Christian education time on Sunday mornings. And God is answering our prayers: we feel the Spirit moving among us, helping us in our discernment and preparation, and igniting excitement for what is to come.

We are still early in the process, but we feel confident that with Jesus leading the way, we are going in a good direction. The Council is grateful to all who participated in the Town Hall Meetings and who provided written feedback for us to review. There were many thoughtful comments and suggestions offered. Each of the options presented were preferred by some; however, the most prevalent preference in the responses we received was Option A. The Council voted unanimously to approve Option A, effective January 6, 2019:

8:15 a.m. Traditional Worship

9:30 a.m. Sunday School for Children and Youth and Small Groups for Adults

10:30 a.m. Contemporary Worship

We also received many suggestions regarding moving to one worship service on Sunday mornings. The Council appreciates the feedback and will consider this as a possibility in the future. The implications of making such a change leaves us with many questions, and we need some time to discern if one Sunday worship service is the most effective way for us to be Sharing Christ's Love. We are planning some special worship services for the Advent and Christmas seasons, where the entire congregation will be invited to worship together in a One Service Weekend:

- *Sunday, December 23, 2018:
Breakfast in Bethlehem at 9:30 a.m.*
- *Saturday, December 29, 2018:
Christmas Lessons and Carols at 5:30 p.m.*

In the coming weeks, Pastor Matt and I will be working with staff and volunteers to prepare for the debut of our Sunday morning faith formation time, which we will call Growing In Faith Together (GIFT). This new program will include Christian education classes for children and youth, ages 3 to high school, and small group Bible Study opportunities for adults. There will be chances for us to be together across generations for an opening time each week and also for special events. Our goal for the program is to provide instruction in the Bible for disciples of all ages, so that we continue to grow in faith together.

We will be asking for volunteers to help lead children and youth classes and adult small groups. Please prayerfully consider how God might be inviting you to use your gifts, or to cultivate new gifts. Continue praying for God's guidance in our time of transition, and expect that God will continue to answer our prayers in ways beyond what we can ever imagine.

*In Christ,
Pastor Laura*

Local and global impact—Social Ministry responds!

As a church that believes God calls us into the world together, we are committed to addressing life in society in a variety of ways. As Scripture teaches, faith is active in love, and love calls for justice in the relationships and structures of society. Our grateful response to God's love and grace motivates us to live lives that demonstrate our responsibility for the well-being of society, communities and the environment. A portion of your weekly offerings bring God's loving hands to our residents of Geneseo, our neighbors in Henry County, and even in the global community in which we live and serve through the work of First's Social Ministry Team. This past year, our Social Ministry outreach provided grants to support neonatal tetanus vaccinations, camperships for Henry County foster children, a Haitian mission trip, Rebuilding Together in Geneseo, Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Center camp, safety and drug prevention education, and food for our global neighbors through the ELCA World Hunger Appeal. Thank you for giving so generously each week, and for joining us as we extend God's love to all those in need.

Outreach Ministry's Volunteer Recognition

Many members of this congregation give of their time, talents and treasure help people, projects and organizations outside the walls of First Lutheran. We notice and want them to know that their efforts are appreciated. Each month we will recognize a FLC individual or group of individuals that are doing "God's Work" in our community and beyond.

Sherry Dickens has been an active member both in and outside of First Lutheran Church. She recently completed the 2 year Diakonia program, the purpose of which is to provide participants the opportunity to discover their God-given gifts, strengthen their faith and their abilities, and give them purpose within their own congregations, synods, and the church-wide body of Christ. This program is designed to equip God's people for service in parish and neighborhood ministries. She has been an active and committed member of First for over 40 years, during which time she spent several years working with the youth, serving on Church Council and is currently the leader for the Outreach Ministry team. Until March of this year she also was Parish Secretary. In her spare time she is active in the Iowa SIDS Foundation and participates in the annual walk in August in Bettendorf.

Jordan - Philippians 4:8-9 "Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you."

Autumn - Psalm 23:1-3 "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake."

• First Book Club — Join us for discussion on the content of the book "The First Phone Call from Heaven" and faith response to the author Mitch Albom on Wednesday, November 14 at 5:30 p.m. in Grace Place.

December's book title is Wonder written by R. J. Palacio. I won't describe what I look like. Whatever you're thinking, it's probably worse. August Pullman was born with a facial difference that, up until now, has prevented him from going to a mainstream school. Starting 5th grade at Beecher Prep, he wants nothing more than to be treated as an ordinary kid—but his new classmates can't get past Auggie's extraordinary face. WONDER, now a #1 New York Times bestseller and included on the Texas Bluebonnet Award master list, begins from Auggie's point of view, but soon switches to include his classmates, his sister, her boyfriend, and others. These perspectives converge in a portrait of one community's struggle with empathy, compassion, and acceptance. Auggie is a hero to root for, a diamond in the rough who proves that you can't blend in when you were born to stand out. Hurry and pick up a copy today!

Thank You from the Staff!

Pastor Laura, Pastor Matt, and the entire staff of First Lutheran are so grateful for each of you: for your faithfulness in sharing Christ's love, for your dedication to this congregation and God's larger church, and for your words of encouragement and gifts during the month of October for Clergy and Staff Appreciation Month.

Heartfelt gratitude for the generous donations of humanitarian aid given for the families in Romania. The items were distributed to women in smaller villages to support their basic health practices.
