A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Belonging to First Lutheran Church

As a pastor, I have bet my life on this one idea. That a life lived within the Church is better than a life lived outside of the Church. At the end of the day, I don't care where a person goes to Church – I just want them to go to Church. In fact, that's what I tell the couples whose weddings I preside over. My advice to the engaged is simple. Find a church home and grow together in faith, hope and love.

A good church home gives you a place to belong. A place to grow in your faith. A place to be spiritual formed in the ways of God. A place to develop lasting and profound relationships with God and God's people. A place to serve the needs of others. A place to be held spiritually accountable and challenged. A place to be lifted up and strengthened. A good church does this and so much more.

Where are you on your spiritual journey? Have you plateaued and are wondering what's God up to next in your life? Have you had a negative church experience and wondering if you ever want to be a part of a church again? Have you just moved to town and are looking for the right church home to join? Have you worshipped with us at First and are ready to belong to this place?

Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, the 900 members of First Lutheran Church and I invite you to belong to this parish and our ministry. On Sundays, September 19 & 26, from 11 a.m. until noon, First Lutheran Church is offering a two part New Member Orientation. The orientation will meet in our Fellowship Room near the kitchen. If you plan on attending, be sure to sign up at the Welcome Center or call our church office at 944-3196. Childcare will be provided.

On September 19, our focus will be two fold. The first focus is learning about the identity of First Lutheran Church. We will speak about our identity as Lutheran Christians. Just to give you a head's up, it's all about grace! The second focus is experiencing our building. Everyone attending will be given a tour of our facility.

On September 26, our focus will be two fold once again. The first focus will be meeting our leadership team and hearing about the ministry they share. This includes both our staff and congregational officers. The second focus will be upon membership. We'll explore what our 900 members are all about and how you can join with us in our common mission of sharing Christ's love.

My tenure as pastor began on November 15, 2006. As I approach my 4th anniversary of serving First Lutheran Church, I remain honored and excited to belong to First Lutheran Church. This is a parish that embodies its mission. We are a community of faith that shares Christ's love with one another in fellowship, with our community in service and with God in worship.

If you are looking for a place to belong, come and learn more about First Lutheran Church in New Member Orientation. This may well be exactly what you are looking for.

—Pr. Arthur

has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

September 18 & 19, 2010

17 Pentecost/The Blessing of the Harvest

As we are invited today to consider what it means to be managers rather than owners of all that we have. People of faith believe everything good in our lives comes from God. Apart from the generosity of God we have nothing—we are nothing. By God's gracious favor we have everything we need. Over the course of all three services, all farmers will be invited to bring forward a symbol of the harvest as we pray for abundance and safety for this harvest season. This weekend's texts include Amos 8:4-7, Psalm 113, 1 Timothy 2:1-7 and Luke 16:1-13.

September 25 & 26, 2010

18 Pentecost/Lutheran World Relief - Quilt Dedication

Consideration of and care for those in need especially those "at our gate," is an essential component of good stewardship. It is in the sharing of wealth that we avoid the snare of wealth. It is the one whom death could not hold—who comes to us risen from the dead—who can free us from the death grip of greed. This weekend's readings include Amos 6:1a, 4-7, Psalm 146, 1 Timothy 6:6-19 and Luke 16:19-31.

First Book Club

The title of the book for October is Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet written by Jamie Ford. This is a tender and satisfying novel set in a time and place lost forever. Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet gives us a glimpse of the damage that is caused by war—not the sweeping damage of the battlefield, but the cold, cruel damage to the hearts and humanity of individual people. Especially relevant in today's world, this is a beautifully written book that will make you think. And, more importantly, it will make you feel. Hurry and purchase your copy today at a bookstore near you!
