Come and be a part of this church-wide service event open to all! On Sunday, September 8, beginning at 11:30 a.m. we will be cleaning up a section of Highway 6 between Geneseo and Atkinson. We are also inviting families with young children to participate in a toy cleaning project in the nursery. After our clean-up we will return to the church for lunch and fellowship. Safety vests and work gloves will be provided. Everyone is welcome!

Rally Day on Friends & Family Weekend

Friends & Family Weekend is planned for September 7 & 8! The Outreach Ministry team is encouraging everyone to invite friends and family to join us in worship this weekend. Join us for Rally Day for Growing in Faith Together (GIFT), as we receive registrations for the coming year and celebrate with games and activities for children. Between services on Sunday there will be fellowship with coffee and delicious treats, displays highlighting our fall programs, plus games and activities for the children, including a Bouncy House, Goldfish Races and several new outdoor games!

We Are Church

In August, over a 1000 Lutherans gathered at the Wisconsin Center in Milwaukee for the 2019 Churchwide Assembly. I was one of 932 voting members who, for six days, worshipped together, prayed together, and did the business of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in American together.

Our denomination has three unique expressions – the churchwide organization, synods, and congregations. Each congregation has its own constitution and bylaws, owns its own property, calls its own rostered leaders, and does ministry in its own context. Each congregation is assigned to one of 65 geographical synods, which are groups of congregations that walk with individual congregations in their ministry. Synods elect bishops, who help to oversee our common life together as church, and who support rostered leaders and candidates for ministry. Each congregation also relates to the churchwide organization, often with the help of the local synod. Churchwide, which has an office in Chicago, helps local congregations do ministry by providing support with programs like World Hunger, Lutheran Disaster Response, and Global Mission; relates to our ecumenical and interfaith partners in the U.S. and internationally; and helps the church advocate in the public square and develop resources that promote justice and peace in our world. The Churchwide Assembly elects a Presiding Bishop to lead us in this work.

This year, we elected Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton to a second six-year term. Bishop Eaton was re-elected on the nominating ballot, with an overwhelming majority. Her election to another term in office was a clear statement of our trust in her and her leadership of this church. We also elected Church Council members, who oversee the work of the churchwide organization until the Assembly meets again in 2022, and a Secretary of the ELCA, who oversees the rosters of Ministers of Word and Sacrament (pastors) and Ministers of Word and Service (deacons), interprets and maintains the governing documents of the church, and is an important part of the Presiding Bishop's leadership team. Deacon Sue Rothmeyer was elected as the Secretary of the ELCA on the fifth and final ballot, after we heard from seven qualified and faithful candidates.

We passed a budget for the next three fiscal years. We amended the constitution and bylaws of the ELCA. We adopted a new social statement that has been in the works for 8 years: "Faith, Sexism, Justice: A Call to Action" that denounces all forms of sex- and gender-based oppression. We considered memorials from synods and resolutions from voting members. We recommended a Strategy Toward Authentic Diversity in the ELCA, which came from a committee of faithful leaders within the ELCA who are all people of color.

Of all the actions we took that week, the one that has received the most press is a memorial declaring that the Churchwide expression of the ELCA is a "sanctuary church body," and that we will continue our commitment to protect and accompany migrants and refugees in our country. The memorial came to the Assembly from the Metropolitan New York Synod, and highlighted the work of AMMPARO, a comprehensive strategy of our church "Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation, and Opportunities," and five synods that have become sanctuary synods. In the days since the assembly has concluded, there has been much discussion within our ELCA congregations about what exactly it means to be a sanctuary church body. Northern Illinois Synod Bishop Jeff Clements has offered some clarification; you can find his letter on our website and at the Resource Center, along with the talking points produced by Churchwide after the Assembly concluded. It seems that our discernment about what this means for our church and where exactly the Holy Spirit is leading us is just beginning. What is certain is that, as people of faith, we have a responsibility to have the conversation and do the work in order to ensure that God's love is made known and that the justice that God desires for all people is realized.

Outreach Ministry's Volunteer Recognition

Many members of this congregation give of their time, talents and treasure help people, projects and organizations outside the walls of First Lutheran. We notice and want them to know that their efforts are appreciated. Each month we will recognize a FLC individual or group of individuals that are doing "God's Work" in our community and beyond.

Stan and Linda Storm have been serving the members of our congregation and our community for decades. At First Lutheran they have both served on Council, served on multiple ministries, taught or acted as Superintendent of Sunday School, and have been or currently are ushers, greeters, communion assistants and providers of Fellowship coffee and refreshments. Linda has served two terms on the synod Social Ministry Committee, and both are active in the Via de Cristo movement. In the Geneseo community Stan has been involved with youth baseball, served on the board of the Geneseo Park District, driven the shuttle at Hammond Henry Hospital and has been a member and officer in Kiwanis. Linda is past-president of the HHH Auxiliary and is now co-chair of Hammond Henry's Women's Health program. Both Stan and Linda have been God's faithful servants for decades – serving this church, serving this community and serving individuals who needed their prayers, presence, comfort, encouragement and help. We thank them for being fine examples of what it means to share Christ's love!

Hope to see you there! The series we will be looking at this month will be all about rhythm. For most of us, when we hear the word “worship,” we think about singing songs at church. But could there be more to worship than just music and words on a screen? In this series, we’ll find out what it looks like to worship God with our whole lives. As we do, we’ll see that when we find the right rhythm to our worship, we’ll also find ourselves walking in better rhythm with the God we’re worshipping.

October’s book title is The Dollmaker of Krakow written by R. M. Romeo. In the land of dolls, there is magic. In the land of humans, there is war. Everywhere there is pain. But together there is hope. Karolina is a living doll whose king and queen have been overthrown. But when a strange wind spirits her away from the Land of the Dolls, she finds herself in Kraków, Poland, in the company of the Dollmaker, a man with an unusual power and a marked past. The Dollmaker has learned to keep to himself, but Karolina’s courageous and compassionate manner lead him to smile and to even befriend a violin-playing father and his daughter—that is, once the Dollmaker gets over the shock of realizing a doll is speaking to him. But their newfound happiness is dashed when Nazi soldiers descend upon Poland. Karolina and the Dollmaker quickly realize that their Jewish friends are in grave danger, and they are determined to help save them, no matter what the risks. Hurry and pick up a copy today and begin reading this timeless fantasy set in the Second World War that weaves together magic, folklore and history. A complete listing of the 2019-20 book titles and authors is available at the Resource Center.

Those simple things are some of the very building blocks to success. That is why bar soap is needed for LWR. Any brand and any size in its original wrapping is accepted; however, bath-size bars (4 to 5 oz.) are highly preferred. Bar soap will be collected through October and can be placed in the basket by the church office.
