The Great Three Days

Since the early days of the church, believers have come together for the most central part of the liturgical year, remembering and honoring the death and celebrating the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. We refer to this time in the church by a special name: Triduum, in Latin, or simply “The Three Days.”

The Three Days encompass Maundy Thursday evening through the evening of Easter Day, according to the notes in our hymnal Evangelical Lutheran Worship. Here at First Lutheran, our Worship pattern is shifted forward just a bit. We begin with Maundy Thursday Worship at Noon and conclude our Easter celebrations by Sunday at Noon. Through these 72 hours, we will have 6 opportunities for Worship.

Maundy Thursday is so named because of the new commandment that Jesus gave us to “love another... as I have loved you” (John 13:34). The word for commandment in Latin is mandatum, from which our word Maundy comes. For our congregation, we also take the opportunity to welcome children to the Table after they have received instruction. For some children, this will be their First Communion, and for others, the classes are an opportunity for them to learn more about the sacrament they have already been receiving. In both cases, as children complete the class, we celebrate with them by giving them their Communion Milestone. As these sisters and brothers join the congregation at the Lord’s Table, we pray that they know God’s love deeply and can fulfill Jesus’ commandment to share that love with one another.

Good Friday is “good” not because of how we feel about what happened, but because of the salvation that comes to us through Jesus’ sacrificial act of love on the cross. The heart of Good Friday Worship is hearing the Passion story again. It’s a story that we may know well already, but each year we experience the power of the cross anew as we listen.

On the night before Easter dawn, Christians begin celebrating what we know will come with the first light on the horizon – the discovery of the empty tomb. The good news is so good that we can’t wait until that dawn to gather and rejoice. The signs of fire and light, water and Word, and the first resurrection meal await us. Traditionally, this is a Worship service that could last for many, many hours. In our setting, we will rejoice loudly and boldly for a shorter time, and then gather again on Easter morning to rejoice again (and again).

I invite you to make the observance of the Three Days a part of your Worship life this year. Join us for one of the two opportunities offered on Maundy Thursday; again on Good Friday to hear the Passion story anew; and then for at least one of the three Resurrection celebrations on Saturday and Sunday.

Our QUEST: The Mysterious Meal

“This is Christ’s body, given for you.” “This is Christ’s blood, shed for you.”

How weird! We go to the Lord’s table and consume our Savior? What?!

As we near the end of this year’s QUEST for sixth graders, we’re talking about the mysterious meal: HOLY COMMUNION.

We’re looking forward to a visit with Darla Anderson from the Altar Guild. During last month’s exploration of WORSHIP, the students were fascinated to stand around the altar with Pastor Matt, learning about the words of institution, the ritual of communion, and the special items the presiding minister uses to serve the meal. With Darla, we’ll learn even more about what happens before and after the congregation gathers for communion.

Next: LAST SUPPER (SORT OF)

The first week of March, we’ll finish our QUEST with a shared meal at Beth Nyland’s house. The students will each prepare a dish to share—a way of serving and honoring one another and celebrating just how much we’ve learned and grown by asking QUESTions.

On Sunday, March 10, the QUEST participants will be recognized in worship for reaching this milestone in their faith development. Please congratulate these young people and encourage them as they prepare to enter the Confirmation program next year:

Lucas Fuelling, Kellan Knackstedt, Matthew Mullins, Reese Shannon,
Hudson Vorac, James Winkleman, and Zania Sefton

Confirmation (7th & 8th graders)

Confirmation Classes conclude this month, as we finish our study of the New Testament. Through the spring and summer months, students will work on their service projects, complete their worship participation requirements, and have the opportunity to attend the Spring Retreat and summer camp at Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Center. Our final two lessons are:

March 6 — Letters

March 13 — Revelation

FLC Youth

There will be no youth group during Lent.

First Book Club

Come and join us for discussion on the content of the book City Spies (Geneseo Middle School On the Same Page Community-Read) and faith response to the author James Ponti on Thursday, March 21 at 2 p.m. in Grace Place.

Sara Martinez is a hacker. She recently broke into the New York City foster care system to expose her foster parents as cheats and lawbreakers. However, instead of being hailed as a hero, Sara finds herself facing years in juvenile detention and—even worse—banned from using computers. Enter Mother, a British spy who offers her a way out of her current problem, and the chance to make a home for herself within a secret MI6 agency. Operating out of a base in Scotland, the City Spies are five kids from various parts of the world. When not attending the local boarding school, they're honing their unique skills, such as sleight of hand, breaking and entering, observation, and explosives. All of these allow them to go places in the world of espionage where adults can't. No one said saving the world was going to be easy. Pick up a copy at the Resource Center to read this middle-grade mystery-adventure spy novel and join our discussion!

Watch Out for Scams

More and more congregations, including our own, are being targeted by scammers and phishing attacks. These emails or text messages often pretend they are a pastor or bishop and ask for private conversation, or the need to for a favor, or to purchase gift cards. These attacks are a phishing or spoofing scam. This means that the email account or phone number has probably NOT been hacked. Attackers are using an alternate email address or phone number and contacts found using A.I. software.

HOW TO AVOID OR STOP SCAMS

1. Check the email address or phone number that sent the message. Modern email programs often only display the name as a default and not the email address. The attackers use this to their advantage and create addresses with the real name but use a bogus email address, often using Gmail or Yahoo accounts. Text scammers will use area codes that are in the area you are in, claiming it is a new phone number.
2. Look for red flags in the tone and grammar of the email or text. Attackers will want to create a sense of urgency, to prey on your desire to help. They will often claim the bishop, pastor, or deacon needs something and is in a meeting, or needs to urgently have a private conversation. These emails will often contain misspellings, strange punctuation, or grammar that is just "off" a bit. Read messages with requests carefully.
3. Ask someone. Have someone else read the message for you to see if they notice anything weird. Call or email the church or synod office to check what the email address or phone number of person actually is.
4. Do not purchase gift cards or give out information. These scams often ask for the purchase of gift cards or want you to provide further information (for more scams). Never share information or make purchases from a text or email request without verifying information.
5. Report it. Report it to the person or leadership, the chances good that if you received a scam email or text, someone else did too. Also report it to the FCC. If you are the victim of a scam, report it to local law enforcement.
